

Website privacy

This Privacy Notice has been written to inform you about how Hutton-le-Hole Parish Council processes your personal data when you visit this website.

This notice only applies to how the Council uses your data when you visit our website. For more information about how the Council uses personal data in general please see our other privacy notices.

Who are we?

Hutton-le-Hole Parish Council is a 'Data Controller' as defined by Article 4(7) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Cookies

When you visit our website we will place a small file on your electronic device (computer, phone, or tablet etc) – this file is called a 'cookie'. This is a common practice used by most websites that you visit.

Cookies are used so that:

- We can remember the information you've provided us with while on our website, so you don't have to keep re-entering the information whenever you visit a new page
- We can look at how you use our website so that we can improve it for other users

When you use our website you agree that we can put these cookies on your device. We do not use cookies that also monitor other websites that you've visited (these are known as privacy intrusive cookies).

Our cookies will not identify you but if you prefer you may wish to turn Cookies off. For more information about how to do this and more information about Cookies in general, please see the website About Cookies.

Google Analytics

Because we want to make sure our web content is the best that it could possibly be, we use Google Analytics to collect information about how people use this website.

Google Analytics collects information about:

- What pages you visit on this website
- How long you are on this website
- What you did to get here (through another website or by search engine)
- What you clicked on when visiting this website
- The number of times a word is searched for and the number of negative returns of a search result

We do not collect any personal information (such as your name), only the above activities.

This is an example of how we store this data and how long we keep it for:

Name	Typical content	Expires
_utma	randomly generated number	2 years
_utmb	randomly generated number	30 minutes
_utmc	randomly generated number	when you close your browser
_utmz	randomly generated number and data on how the site was reached (e.g. direct or via a link, organic search or paid search)	2 years

For more information about Google Analytics and to opt out of Google Analytics all together please see the Google Analytics opt out browser add-on.
