

E INGLEBY

Ernest, the younger brother of Frederick Ingleby, was born in Hutton le Hole and the family lived at Primrose Hill Farm. From the 1901 census he was 8 months old and would have served in the later stages of WWI but unfortunately no military records have been found. Ernest married Elsie Foster in 1924.

Military Service

As the Army was increasingly requiring more numbers and volunteering was not producing sufficient recruits, the Military Service Act of 1916 was enabled to allow conscription of all 18 year olds. This could have applied to Ernest.
